Boot racks are an extremely useful accessory, particularly when touring providing invaluable extra luggage space. The boot racks for TR2-3A fit to the boot hinge pins and clamp-on to the back edge of the boot lid. The TR4-5 rack fits using a plate under the boot hinges and the number plate mounting holes at the rear. The TR6 boot lid requires drilling to bolt the rack to the boot lid.

The clamp-on boot racks are a universal fitment that have rubber mounting pads and clamp to the sides of the boot lid. The universal bike rack can be installed in minutes and securely holds two bicycles.

Wire wheels

An essential part of a British classic sportscar's styling was the fitment of wire wheels. Whether they were fitted as standard or not, a set of chrome wire wheels will not only enhance the appearance of your car, but also the value. Our wire wheels have stainless steel nipples and spokes, available in different specifications i.e: 48, 60 or 72 spoke, chrome or painted, standard or uprated.

Before fitting your tyre choice, please ensure there is adequate clearance between the tyres and wheel arches.

Wire wheel essentials

Creating an air tight seal on a wire wheel can be somewhat difficult, making the use of inner tubes necessary and, to prevent the inner tube chaffing against the spoke nipples, the fitting of a rim band is highly recommended.

To help keep your wire wheels looking like new we recommend you use our specialist cleaning kit. We also supply a special lubricant to help keep the splines in good condition.

Relay kits

Early electrical systems did not have relays in the headlamp dip or main circuits. This omission means that all of the current required to power the headlamp circuit goes through the switchgear, putting it under greater load contributing to burning and failure of the headlight switchgear. A situation that is aggravated when fitting halogen headlamps.

By fitting relays in both headlamp circuits you not only protect your wiring, but you also benefit from a further improvement in headlamp power. Less resistance in the circuit means more of the power can get to the lights themselves without loading other components.

Easily fitted without any butchery of the wiring loom the relays can easily be fitted out of sight, bringing you more modern electrics without losing any visible originality.

Vinyl, double duck and mohair hoods

The hoods supplied by Moss are made on jigs matching those used by the factory, with staff that have over 100 years experience of hood manufacturing between them. The vinyl used is from the same supplier that supplied the Triumph factory. These are the closest you will get to an original hood in terms of quality, fit and appearance.

Mohair was the original material used on the Triumph Stag, it gives a high quality, fade free look but can be more difficult to fit as it has less stretch than vinyl based materials. Double duck is a canvas based material which whilst being durable, is prone to fading in direct sunlight and can develop a milky white tinge.

closest you will get to an original hood...

All mohair and double duck hoods have their windows sewn in, although this is a time consuming and laborious process it is the only reliable way of attaching a window to these materials.
